Community Service Agreement Form - Volunteer Copy

We are happy to have those in need of court mandated community service or school credit hours join us at God's Storehouse. As a community service volunteer, you understand that you are required to finish a certain amount of hours within a certain time-frame and must take responsibility to finish your hours during the time assigned to you. Please know that we have limited space available for those seeking court ordered community service, and that you are encouraged to seek out other organizations where you may be able to obtain hours.

If you have any mitigating medical concerns (pregnancy, back problems, etc.), or cannot handle the physical demands of working in a fast paced warehouse environment (heavy lifting, standing for long periods of time on concrete surfaces, bending, etc.), please reconsider your community service options. While there are some "light duty" activities at God's Storehouse, these tasks are limited and it may be difficult to obtain hours.

After completion of all required hours you must alert the Assistant Director that you will need a letter on God's Storehouse letterhead verifying your completed hours. Note that it is your responsibility to keep track of your hours and that while we do enter your hours in our database; it is not updated on a daily basis.

The following policies and procedures apply to all volunteers and are strictly enforced.

Volunteer Policies

Credit will not be given for any hours for which your time sheet is not complete. Volunteers may not sign in or begin work until a staff person is present to supervise. Any scheduled absences should be indicated on the volunteer calendar (located on the Assistant Director's office door). Breaks

Volunteers working an entire six hour shift may take a lunch break of up to 30 minutes provided that their station is covered for the duration of their break.
